R 400.12707 Orientation.
				i .

Rule 707. An agency social service worker shall provide and document an orientation for the adoptive parents before they are determined suitable to parent an adopted child. The orientation shall include a review of all of the following areas:
(a) Program statement, policies, and procedures.
(b) Needs and characteristics of children available for adoption. (c) Legal process for adoption.
(d) Services and resources available.
(e) Fees and charges for services.
R 400.12708 Evaluation.
Rule 708. An agency shall have on file a written adoption evaluation and agency recommendation as required under R 400.12605 and R 400.12606 before approving the adoptive parents for each adoptive placement and before referring a child to, or placing a child in, the home for purposes of adoption.
R 400.12709 Placement.
Rule 709. (1) An agency shall consider all of the following factors in selecting appropriate adoptive parents for a child:
(a) The physical, emotional, medical, and educational needs of the child.
(b) The child's needs for continued contact with the birth parent, siblings, relatives, foster parents, and other persons significant to the child.
(c) The racial, ethnic, and cultural identity, heritage, and background.
The child's racial, ethnic, and cultural identity, heritage, and background may only be considered if an assessment of the individual child indicates that such consideration is in the best interests of the child.
(2) An agency shall place a child with agency-approved adoptive parents consistent with the needs of the child identified in subrule (1) of this rule and the agency's adoptive parent recommendation as required by R 400.12708.
(3) An agency shall require a social service supervisor, or chief administrator if the placement is recommended by a social service supervisor, to approve or deny the recommendation for placement by the social service worker. The approval shall be documented in the record.
(4) A public or private agency may place a child in an unlicensed home for the purposes of adoption if all of the following conditions have been met:
(a) The adoptive parents have received orientation in accordance with the requirements of R 400.12707.
(b) The evaluation of the prospective adoptive parents has been completed in accordance with the requirements of R 400.12605.
(c) Supervisory approval of the placement has been documented in accordance with the requirements of subrule (3) of this rule.
(d) The adoptive petition has been filed with the court.
(5) The provisions of this rule do not prohibit a temporary placement made under section 23d of chapter X of Act No. 288 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being '710.23d of the Michigan Compiled Laws.
